New Business:

A) Discuss Special Use Permit for Dan Gernatt Gravel Products, Inc.

- Richard Agle recused himself regarding Gernatt Gravel excavation on Agle property for the Special Use Permit. Per Rich Pecnik, the set-back boundary that is normally in place will be eliminated as they continue from one property to the other property. When they are done, the property will be suitable for agriculture use. The trucks will come off of the haul road onto Vail Road, it's a flatter road, is a shorter distance for their trucks to travel, and Gernatt's can maintain Vail Road better than Allen Road. Rich stated that he is available anytime for any questions the Planning Board or Town Board may have for him, to call the office to reach him. Next step is to forward the Planning Board's recommendations to the Town Board, then a public hearing will be held.

B) New Topic - Zoning Maps

- Ken Martin contacted Erie County Planning Board and spoke with Dale Morris regarding getting large Town of Collins Zoning Maps. Large maps were supplied and picked up March 13.

Old Business:

A) Continued Topic - Classes at Houghton

- Chairman Brian Martin has not been able to locate classes at a different location. Chairman Martin will contact Mark for more information.
